The Heavenly Man

In the vision I was walking up a steep hill, trying to push a heavy cart in front of me. I was heading towards a village where I intended to beg for food for my family.

I was struggling greatly, because in my vision I was hungry and weakened by constant fasting. The old cart was about to roll back and fall on me.

The Heavenly Man

I then saw three men walking down the hill in the opposite direction. A kind old man, who had a very long beard, was pulling a large cart full of fresh bread. Two other men were walking on each side of the cart.

When the old man saw me he felt great pity and showed me compassion. He asked, Are you hungry? When the old man asked me if I was hungry I couldn't help but cry. I'd never felt such genuine love and compassion from anyone before.

The Heavenly Man

The old man took a red bag containing bread from his trolley and asked his two servants to give it to me. He said, You must eat it immediately.

I opened the wrapping and saw there was a bun of fresh bread inside. When I put the bun in my mouth, it instantly turned into a Bible!

Suddenly I heard a faint knock at the door. A very gentle voice called my name. I rushed over and asked through the locked door, Are you bringing the bread to me? The gentle voice replied, Yes, we have a bread feast to give you I immediately recognized the voice as the same one I had heard in the vision.

I quickly opened the door and there standing before me were the same two servants I had seen in the vision. One man held a red bag in his hand.

My heart raced as I opened the bag and held in my hands my very own Bible!

The two men quickly departed into the still darkness. I clutched my new Bible to my heart and fell down on my knees outside the door. I thanked God again and again!
