

Prophetic Words December 16 2021

Do you know what time it is?

Today tomorrow; buy; sell: Then the next day lament and mourn for your time has come O Nation and People.

From the Throne out of Heaven my father sends judgments; disasters meant for correction.
Destruction comes, disasters loom; now look at a Country of gloom. Laughter fades, smiles of sternness. Where does freedom ring? Bells of jolly now is folly; Look to the east and see whose sorry.

Word of Knowledge

- Changes in seats of power will occur in the Nation soon
- Changes to the Airline Industry will be made permanent

Here two four; there at the door; I examine, I judge, I purge, I refine; to the throne I bring mine; for there I will requite; to account, to foretell all they have done

☐ Changes come soon

Words of Knowledge

- Judgement
- Time of sorrows
- Forbidden fruit
- Last chance before it rains
- How can you escape

To my own: They same I'm ok; from the Throne I say I don't own. They please a man; they live in grand; deny my Son and reap my hand.

Do you know what time it is?

The Song of Moses

Here we are; here we stand; tried and judged together in the land. Seasons come; seasons go now I change those that stand.

Together we stand; together we fall

Judgments now fall; who can say I did not call

Words of Wisdom

The time for repentance is speeding by just like the chaff that the wind drives away. It's hard to believe that repentance is a free gift until the time to repent is gone; taken away.

Find safety and refuge from this false-minded generation and come humbly before the throne of Grace in submission while Mercy is still available. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean; but only God. It may be the Lord will hide you in the day of His fierce anger.
