And NOW I will not restrain

Listen for the LORD speaking in these Words

Son of man, when the land sins against me by trespassing grievously, that means; when a country sins by breaking faith with me; then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: Though these three men; Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, by their righteousness they could only save themselves.

From May 12 2021

Stranded in the desert; coming by sea; Up in the heavens many will see; Here comes calamity others see; Look to the left, look to the right, turn around and ask about; Are there any that see My Hand Around ? I rebuke and I chasten and I press together; I allow purging and refining and send these two together From below calamity strikes; and up above is thundering rain: And now, I will not restrain

- Here it comes from within*
- Major cities will crumble from within; they will be destroyed from within*

Words of Wisdom

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, its judges, and officers. And they presented themselves before God.

Joshua said these words: Thus sayith the LORD;
your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood and Terah, the father of Abraham the father of Nachor; they served other Gods.

And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, but Jacob and his children I sent down into Egypt.

Is there not Egypt over the horizon 0 people of God?
