

Dear Dad,

I have been thinking of you lately as God has put you on my heart to pray. I wanted to let you know that since I have become an adult and experienced life's discouraging trials that I have discovered great strength, peace and solitude in Jesus Christ. His grace gives me hope and carries me through the difficult times.

I have also discovered that when the world offers me no hope my heavenly Father encourages me the most. It is my heavenly Father that I can turn to when everyone else has departed and the failures, disappointments and set-backs in life are glaring at me in the face.

So I was wondering if during your life whether you experienced those times when you wanted to quit and whether God's Grace gave you the strength to endure? I was wondering that while being my Dad whom God gave me; whether you have any Wisdom and Encouragement to impart to me as a son?

I know in the Word of God it instructs me to know that though a righteous man falls He will not be utterly cast down (Psalms 37.24). Sometimes I don't understand. It's in those times I ask my heavenly Father for help.

Dad, my heavenly Father has taught me this: Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial. For when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life the Lord has promised to those who love him (James 1.12).

In closing, I want to say this to you Dad. I might have not started my life right. But, I do want to finish well. I want to run the race set before me and finish the course. I want to fight that good fight of faith so that when I have done all I can do to stand; I will continue to stand firm in Faith unwavering and un-yielding to doubt and unbelief.

Dad, I want to say to you. Well done good and faithful dad. You have stayed the course and fought that good fight of faith. As my earthly Dad I want to say I love you and admire you. May God grant me the Grace that he gave you as my earthly Dad.

And may the Lord Bless YOU and Keep YOU. And may the Lord cause His face to shine upon YOU and be Gracious to YOU. And may the Lord lift up his countenance upon YOU and give YOU peace all the days of your life. I love YOU Dad

Your son
