

Meditating on the attributes of God

O Lord there is no one more Glorious or excellent than you for you are perfect in all of your ways

O Lord there is no one more authority than you for at your rebuke the Red sea moved this way and that way and the waters saw you and were afraid, yes they stood into a heap like a wall on each side

O Lord there is no one with a voice more Majestic than yours for your voice thunders in the heavens and as lightening's light the world and the earth also trembles and shakes

O Lord there is no one to be feared more than you. For when you descended upon the mountain it quaked, it trembled then lighting and hail came and it was a fearful sight to behold!

O Lord there is no one with more ability than you for you are a God of Wonders and Miracles!

O Lord there is no one that can do Wonders like you for you split the rock in the wilderness and caused water to come out of it.

O Lord there is no one with more POWER than you cause the east wind to blow in the heavens and by your power you guide the south wind

O Lord there is no one more gracious and compassionate with loving kindness than you for in a time of trouble you allow a man to seek you and find you

O Lord there is no one more discerning and wise than you for you took David your servant from the sheep's fold and made him King

O Lord there is no one like unto you for who in the heavens can be compared to you or who among the heavenly beings can be likened to you

O Lord there is no one with more than you for the heavens are yours the earth also is yours; and the sea and all it contains belong to you

O Lord there is no one more just than you for righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne

O Lord there is no one with more authority than you for you bring low one and exalt another. All authority is instituted by you

O Lord there is no one older than you for you were there before the mountains were brought forth. A thousand years are like yesterday to you. Indeed you are the Ancient of Days!

O Lord there is no one more caring than you, for out of the depths I cried out to you. I was brought low and you helped me. In the day I cried out you answered me and strengthened my soul

O Lord how great are the work of your hands for they have made me and fashioned me in the image of God. For I know I am fearfully and wonderfully made by you O Lord

O Lord you are righteous in all of your ways and perfect in all of your works!

Closing