

Prophetic Word - snooping around

March 9 2021

Listen to the LORD speak here:

For those that surrender; those that become purified your sins do I forgive and your garments do I cleanse. I know the hearts of all men. Everything is laid bare. Here is the Love that I share.

- The Cross
- Forgiveness
- Redemption

I am seeing a funeral procession. As I look around it's a big ornate cathedral.

- Who died; a king died

The LORD is removing another liberty from these people

- Freedom to travel

The LORD says share the snooping dog vision.
Somebody needs to hear it.

I am seeing a picture of a security camera. Instantly it goes away and I see the cartoon character Snoopy the dog. The scene goes away and immediately I hear:

- snooping around;
- monitoring
- trying to dig up dirt on you.

So there is some one snoopin around lookin to discredit you There you have it

- Somebody monitoring
- Snoopy the dog
- Diggin with a shovel

Word of Wisdom

It is honor to suffer reproach and to share in the sufferings of Christ

The waters rise, the waves roar now is the time to wage the war, bend the knee and seek the LORD for here he comes from the north.

- War, War, War warn my people says the LORD
- Isaiah 22.7 and 14

I am seeing what appears to be a key hole. It's the eschutcheon plate on the door where the knob and key are located. Its an old key hole like for a skeleton key. I somehow see what's ion the room behind the door without it opening. It's a man sitting in chair facing away from me. Is very dark in the room but the man is darker than the darkness. It someone sitting in a chair.

I could clearly see the bones like the skeleton of the person like looking at a live real time ex-ray. What I notice are the joints of the person: The wrist, the elbow and knee joints certain other joints in the body. There's metal there that lights up. It aluminates as light. Its like this man is part human or bionic or something. I don't know.

- Daniel Chapter 3.2
- Revelation 13.15

Word of Wisdom

He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying. Count the number of the beast for it is the number of a man
