

Prophetic Word - A Towering Cedar No More

September 1 2020

My son, here is what I intend to do to your Country. I will make her the least of all Nations. I will position My destroyers around her on all sides and they will spare no arrows because she has sinned greatly against the LORD.

I will take vengeance on her as she has done to others.

She will surrender as her towers fall and her protection is removed. All who pass by will scoff at her wounds.

A once towering Cedar and the envy of Nations:
NO MORE!

I say Prepare to fight all ye Nations round about her. Look her walls are down; shout against her she has surrendered! cry out against her on every side Her walls have collapsed!

Look up My Chosen people your Redeemer Rides in Glory taking vengeance on His enemies
