The Scepter to Change soon

Another Ode from the LORD

Chasing sin changing your name: Going from light receiving darkness. The changed heart, the seared mind, the calloused heart: changing Glory to your shame: It's My name they profane. I warned, I pleaded; who has heeded? Here I am to judge you now. My Name was deleted and the public heeded. Now here comes what's needed
Judgment from on high

A saying for the Elect of God

My Faithful come to the Throne and repent; they take My Name and stay the same; they rise to Glory and they do not change their Glory to their shame. They receive My Grace; preferring love to hate; they serve in song and stand so strong; I bring them Home to heaven's Throne.
Here they stay beside the way
