The Clock with no time

Night Vision

I am seeing this King before me in a virtual meeting form. It's in full color. The scene immediately goes away. Momentarily the virtual meeting reappears and the Bear says to me: don't steal from me. The virtual meeting abruptly ends.

That Seat of Power has vengeance in his heart to repay Babylon says the LORD.

Remember the Words I spoke regarding Trumpets.

- ❑ In ancient Greek Literature men were considered to be Trumpets.
- ❑ The Seats of Power are sounding right now. Take note of it.

Words of knowledge

- Deflag America says the LORD
- Here comes an anomaly in the economy;
Disaster upon calamity says the LORD
- My father sends rain; a destroying rain on the wicked; a healing rain on the righteous

Night Vision

I am seeing this man again. He is a King. Suddenly we are together in the same place. He is about Three feet from me. I look up and I him standing on a small step ladder trying to fix a clock over the doorway. It appears the clock doesn't work its broke around the five minute to twelve position.

He is trying to splice the wires back together to get the clock running again. I turn and hand him nonconductive glue to repair so the clock can be reset and start running again. I then notice the hands seem to be missing from the clock.

I think he is going to try to put the minute hand back on the clock.

- ❑ The time on the clock is a false time says the LORD. Time no longer says the LORD
- ❑ The Lord says; Here is the Trump that is stepping forward

Words of Knowledge

- ❑ Incoming; incoming, they will abandon their posts
- ❑ Soldier, country, war
- ❑ September war: on the days of September that remain

The winds blow strong the hearts stand strong

There is calloused that don't turn from wrong

I smite to teach

Righteousness to each

Will they delay to bend the knee

Here it comes from beneath

- Under the earth
- From the abyss
- Very intelligent
- The wisdom of men
- Appeals to the soul
- Has all the answers
- Many solutions
- Provides the leadership
- Condemns the soul

The humble I forgive, the repentant shall live
if its upon the altar I forgive
For at the altar everyone must lay pride and envy or its displayed
