Purging, Repentance, Judgment

A Parable for the Elect

Sources of blessings; sources of favor; From the throne the cup of travail. Drink the cup; walk it out, My Father helps all who abide. Stiffen not at my rebuke; My sons I correct; They are my own. Others who mock will not know; My cup of Grace you just drank.

A Word from the LORD to Everyone from Sept 3 2020

My son judgment and redemption are two concurrent events I provide. One for the wicked, the other for the Saints. These events are concurrent and overlap the other. The purging and refining precedes the one while the other is continuous. See how my people are confused by doctrine. See how my words are used by the wicked one. And so it will be as it is written the spiritual man discerns all things yet, he himself is discerned by no man.

- Purging first
- Repentance next
- Judgment after

God says very short notice of My Son's arrival.

Very, very short notice says the LORD

Night Vision

I am below the Capital Building and I am seeing Military personnel entering a place further beneath the Building. As I am standing there observing the situation and I am hearing explosions directly to the building above.

There will be somberness over your Government as the fate of this Country is reconciled.

Vision

I am standing beneath an overpass of a bridge; it was just a dry river bed of cobblestone and sand. As I continue to look intently I see my own shadow first to the side and then in front of me. It's a hot sunny day. In the next scene I am high above a forest like in the Mountains of Virginia and as I look down over the landscape it is very sparse of normal trees and vegetation it was a very sever and prolonged drought.

Words of Wisdom

I speak to those who are Trusting the LORD right now. I have a rhyme a simple rhyme. Its only three lines.

1. My father provides what you need.
2. Do not doubt what you hear.
3. My father provides for this year.
