

Prophetic Word to Babylon

August 25 2020

My son proclaim disaster.

Go to the lost for My people who say they believe have hardened their heart.

I will execute my judgements in your midst O Babylon in the site of all Nations and you shall be a reproach, a taunt and a horror for all to see says the LORD.

And when my judgments are released only the righteous will save themselves.

As surely as I live says the LORD, though Noah Daniel and Job were there they could deliver neither son nor daughter but only themselves by their own righteousness.

My judgements are Just and My ways are Perfect and you shall know it was not without cause I have done so says the LORD.
