Holy and Profane

February 18 2021

Words of Wisdom

- Pray for those who spitefully use you
- Acknowledge what is good and Abhor evil
- Touch no unclean thing
- Distinguish between the Holy and The Profane
- Take heed to which path you walk upon
- If possible be at peace with all men
- Do not seek to advance or promote yourself, Stay humble
- Rest in the Father's provision

I am seeing lungs. I hear the words these are lungs. Then I see a head turning. I see each side and the front. It's a primate; the head of a primate. I am looking at it then it disappears.

Primates - die off; some kind of lung disease

There are some who trust in man Others trust in God Fortresses are strong God's Word is stronger

The foundations beneath crumble from within Who can declare the beginning from the end

I turn and smite those that hate And now they bare their fate

The Lamb of God is coming soon Here He is on the move

Those He takes to His Father above the treasured souls from Calvary's tree

Some try the Spirit but there is no result. For those who have not the Spirit they cannot exalt. My Word testifies to those whom I call. Here I am exalted of all.
