

Prophetic Word - Ides of March

February 25 2021

Today the LORD would have me quote Shakespeare

Beware the Ides of March

The trees went forth arrayed for battle; clouds of thunderstorms stood above; the weather changed and lightening prevailed; as the trees ran for cover behold the sky opened up but what should appear but Angels proclaiming Jesus is here.

The trees came forth one by one looking to the Father above.

As the lights began to fade the trees had no shade.

Here they are now in the dark who could tell they had the mark.

For now I say they had his name how they could withstand the thundering rain.

Teach me this riddle and teach me to say Jesus my Savior I have his Name!

Words of Knowledge

- Downpour imminent
- Prepare for the thundering rain
