Let go envy, pride and malice

Here is a saying from of Old

Able was here at my feet. Daily he sat there to eat. My teachings distilled, they dropped as the dew only to hear what to do. He stood by my side without any pride tending the sheep on the side. He walked in the way setting aside all envy malice and pride. He learned at my feet to stay on his knees and offered the sacrifice in which I was pleased. A life cut short by envy and pride. Up from the ground his blood now speaks

☐ Days of reckoning says the LORD

Words of knowledge

Snow and Ice

Thunder and hail

The east wind drives the nail

See how I harden their heart says the LORD

There is an acceleration of events taking place right now. Things will unfold very fast says the LORD. Here comes the first disaster in a series of disasters

another Ode for the unrepentant

So many regrets and sorrows to behold. There was no place for repentance to hold. I lived as I pleased; exalted my will. I did as I want and never stood still to take from that Tree, the Tree of Life of Repentance and Grace from the River of Life. There were signs to the left and over to the right. Which ones were on the left? See how they merge into one fold? The cup is prepared. Dregs are next.

☐ Dance and rejoice you don't have to share!

As the Change in the legal system occurs then you will see this man rise to power as the dominant leader. But the surprising thing will be his cohort. Who would have thought these two fit hand in glove?

A Parable in time has its place in time. My Father speaks Wisdom that turns in time. Circle around and behold what's around. I have spoken My Father's Words. They are rejoicing to my heart bitter in the stomach they hit the ground.

The season has come it is now around. Surely it will not hit the ground. Grace was foretold by those from of old. They said stand your ground; stay the way do not move beside the way. Vengeance strikes, Justice rules, my Father comes He set the Rule. You shall know Heaven's decree when justice prevails upon the sea.

☐ There is sorrow on the sea and it cannot be quieted.

The Angel traversed this land from of old. The Angel appeared in times of old walking about his hand was about traversing the land revealing My Father's Hand. He was girded for war. He was girded with Light. He was girded with a cloud both day and night.

He stood above He walked below his hand was about the land about. With Abraham He spoke in the heat of the day only to take vengeance on Sodom that day. Manoah saw who the Seventy saw. Moses foretold he guards the way.

The Egyptians saw Him fight from above down below Israel saw His hand from above. David saw Him stand above. With sword in hand He said He comes as LORD of hosts, Commander above.

Who am I?

The Throne of Grace the height of Love that My Father prepared for those that love. People that pray will bear no shame; they will tell others to pray; for this is the way I come today.

Those have foretold, I am on My way only to know this might be the day. Changes above changes beneath who can say, come from the East?

☐ Mourn and lament My Father has decreed.
