

Prophetic Word - the tale of this story is sealed

September 12 2020

Last evening right before I was about to fall into a sleep I heard these words. “No more time” “Brace for impact” Let me repeat “No more time;
brace for impact”

As brother fights against brother thus it shall be fulfilled every Kingdom or every city divided against itself is brought to desolation.

 His arm is raised to strike.

False guides promised all is well and now those who should have been guided are in confusion.

 His arm is raised to strike.

The tale of this story is like a revelation written in a book handed to a scholar saying read this but he says I cannot it is sealed.
