

Prophetic Word - a riddle for naysayers

September 17 2020

A riddle for the naysayers:

For this is the thing the LORD has said; there is small, there is great; there is more there is less;
for whom can you run to and find what you need

To where will go to see I have not provided.

For I have removed this with My own hand says the LORD.

Lift up your eyes and look before you; is there anything to eat; if there is for what will you purchase it with.

At what costs will you provide for that which will not satisfy says the LORD

Thus shall Wisdom speak on the matter:

Today you will see this thing tomorrow it is not then how will you see He who changes the times and the seasons?
